EXECUTIVE MARKET HIGHLIGHTS

Equities rebound as BSEC approves key market-access changes

Tuesday, 24 November 2026 · Complete Bangladesh-calendar-day news review

01 / EXCHANGE SESSION

DSEX advanced 30.84 to 5,588.02; DSE main-board trading reached Tk1,076.05 crore, up from Tk920.82 crore a day earlier.

02 / SECURITIES REGULATION

BSEC voted to lower SME eligibility to Tk10 lakh, conditionally permit digital AGMs, and reject LR Global's six-fund appeal.

03 / BANKING & DEBT

Bangladesh Bank commenced Padma Bank resolution and outlined bank-specific reforms; officials described a planned Tk32,000 crore Sukuk programme.

04 / COMPANY FILINGS

Singer revised its preference-share plan; Asiatic's earlier stock dividend remains subject to BSEC clearance; audit opinions featured in DSE disclosures.

CORPORATE ACTIONS · STATUS MATRIX

Company / code	Corporate event	Verified status at 24 Nov
ASIATICLAB	10% stock dividend	Previously recommended; BSEC approval pending
SEAPEARL	FY2026 board dividend decision	24 Nov report; precise rate not independently verified
PADMAOIL	170% cash dividend	Earlier declaration; spot/record-date schedule
SPCL	40% cash dividend	Earlier declaration; spot/record-date schedule
SINGERBD	Preference shares	Revised capital plan; not a shareholder dividend

Editorial distinction: Dividend rates denote prior recommendations unless explicitly identified as 24 November decisions. Record-date eligibility is not payment, and an approval condition must not be treated as fulfilled.

Accounting control: Do not imply that an audit emphasis automatically means an adverse opinion. Where a financial number was unavailable in a dated source extract, it is left unspecified rather than estimated.

RISK & EVENT READ-THROUGH

Financing

The Singer instrument would raise capital without conferring ordinary voting rights, subject to approvals and issue terms.

Cash flows

The bank-sector NPL ratio and resolution framework remain important risk context, not company-specific valuation forecasts.

Audit flags

Qualified opinions and going-concern uncertainty require issuer-level attention to disclosures and accounting notes.

Dividends

Distinguish recommendations, pending permission, record dates and final cash payment.

02 Banking and financial shares lift DSEX despite mixed market breadth

Bangladesh Sangbad Sangstha reported renewed demand for heavyweight banking stocks after Monday’s profit-taking. Its 24 November market coverage put DSEX gains at 30.84 points and reported 145 advancing issues, 176 declining and 74 unchanged. Textiles generated the largest reported sectoral share of turnover, followed by banking and pharmaceuticals. Rising indices alongside more decliners indicate that market performance was not uniform across individual securities.

04 BSEC votes to reduce SME-board trading eligibility to Tk10 lakh

এসএমই বোর্ডে শেয়ার লেনদেনে বিনিয়োগসীমা কমানোর সিদ্ধান্ত বিএসইসি

At its 1,040th meeting on 24 November, the securities commission decided to lower the minimum portfolio requirement for individual investors trading on the SME secondary-market platform from Tk30 lakh to Tk10 lakh. Reporting explicitly states that the revised eligibility is not yet operational: BSEC must first issue an amended order or directive. The decision is therefore a regulatory change in principle, not confirmation of immediately available access.

সংকুচিত হল ডিজিটাল প্ল্যাটফরমে এজিএম করার সুযোগ

The commission decided that listed A-category companies, and companies outside that category recommending at least a 5% cash dividend, may conduct AGMs through digital platforms. The meeting decision was announced on 24 November and described as taking immediate effect. The threshold is a condition of AGM format eligibility, not a compulsory cash-dividend rate or approval of any company's previously proposed dividend.

06 BSEC rejects LR Global appeal over removal from six mutual funds

The 1,040th BSEC commission meeting rejected LR Global Bangladesh Asset Management Company's request to reconsider the earlier cancellation of its asset-management appointment for six funds. The regulator attributed its prior action to prohibited fund investments and losses suffered by unit holders. The six-fund decision concerns management authority and regulatory enforcement; it should not be interpreted as a same-day fund liquidation or cash distribution to investors.
